

SCHEDULE “C” TO SETTLEMENT APPROVAL ORDER

NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT APPROVAL

This notice is to inform you that the settlement of the class action lawsuit entitled Rorison, et al. v. Insurance Corporation of British Columbia, et al., Court File No. S202406, Vancouver Registry, has been approved by the Supreme Court of British Columbia

This class action alleged that the Province of British Columbia (“Province”) and Insurance Corporation of British Columbia (“ICBC”) agreed to divert monies from ICBC to the Province by wrongfully requiring ICBC to reimburse the Province for the cost of health-related services for persons injured in motor vehicle accidents, including in respect of medical practitioner services, hospital services (including a 35% surcharge), ambulance services and rehabilitation services. The class action alleged that these payments increased the cost of compulsory auto insurance rates charged by ICBC and constituted an unauthorized and unconstitutional tax on persons who purchased compulsory auto insurance from ICBC.

On November 27, 2025, the British Columbia legislature passed legislation that terminated all agreements under which ICBC had been reimbursing the Province for health-related services incurred by persons injured in motor vehicle accidents, and retroactively imposed a tax that includes and exceeds the disputed funds. This legislation had the potential to defeat the claim entirely. The retroactive tax does not require the payment of any new funds by ICBC or its insureds.

You are a member of the class on whose behalf this class action was brought if you purchased compulsory auto insurance from ICBC at any time since 1973 to January 26, 2026 and did not opt out (“Class Members”).

On January 22, 2026, the parties entered into a settlement agreement which they amended on March 5, 2026 (collectively the “Settlement Agreement”).

On May 15, 2026, the Supreme Court of British Columbia approved the Settlement Agreement. Prior to the approval of the Settlement Agreement, a court-approved notice was distributing informing Class Members of their right to opt out of the class action or object to the Settlement Agreement. The deadline to opt out or object was April 7, 2026.

The Settlement Agreement provides that the Province will pay the all-inclusive sum of $12,200,000, which sum, after deduction of Class Counsel’s court-approved fees, will be paid by way of donation to various non-profit organizations and programs as follows:

- (a) Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD Canada) – 50%
- (b) Parachute Leaders in Injury Prevention – 50%

All Class Members who did not opt out of the Settlement Agreement in accordance with the procedure approved by the Court are bound by the Settlement Agreement, including the release of liability, that the Court has approved. If you have validly opted out of the class action, any claims you may have against the defendants are subject to the applicable time limits for pursuing a claim (called limitation periods).

Copies of the Settlement Agreement and the Court's order approving the Settlement Agreement are available on Class Counsel's website at www.murphybattista.com. The release can be found at Section 6 of the Settlement Agreement.
